9. Re-Fuelling:

Re-fuelling is allowed in the Service area, on your own location. Great caution must be observed when re-fuelling and an absorbent material and tarpaulin needs to be available and used if fuel is spilled.

9. Main Marshall Point / Finish:

The main Marshall Point is located near the start/finish line on the right side. An electronic screen with numbers and flags will be used.

10. Line-up for the Start and Warm-up:

Line up for the start takes place on the main straight, at the actual starting position.

The time on the Time Schedule is the starting time for the Warm-up lap. If the Competitor arrives to the Pitlane when the gate is closed, they must leave from the Pitlane, when given permission by the officials. If the car stalls when leaving for the Warm-up lap, the car will be pushed to the side. The Competitor may participate in the start from the last row.

Porsche Sprint Challenge class will have two (2) Warm up laps. If the Competitor stalls at the departure for the Warm-up and misses his own starting position, the Competitor must follow in the last position and that the first free spot on the grid, starting as last. If the Competitor loses position momentarily, it is allowed to re-take the position on the starting grid.

11. Rolling Start:

SK 2020 procedure with lights. The starting formation must be formed by Marshall Point no. 10. The Safety Car will lead the Warm-up until the Pitlane entrance and will go to the Pitlane. Pole Position holder will function as Master after that. If the Start cannot be performed for any reason (formation not correct or other) The red lights will not go off, and yellow lights will come on also.

If this happens, one extra formation lap will be driven, which will be discounted from the Competition distance.

12. Jump Start

The Penalty for a Jump Start is according to class rules.

13. Safety Car:

Safety car will be used according to SK 2020.

14. Red Flag, Red Flag re-grouping area:

If the race must be stopped with the red flag, the Competitors must line up at Marshall Point no.9. From there the Competitors will be guided back to the starting grid or to the Pitlane, depending on the situation. In a Red Flag situation, the cars are under rules of Parc Fermé anywhere on the track.

15. Wet Race:

Race leaders will not announce "Wet Race". The Competitor may use wet weather tyres according to his own discretion.

16. Awards:

The Award Ceremony will be on Saturday 25.7 for all races. The location is at second floor terrace of the Race Control Tower. The Ceremony will begin at directly after the last race. Participation is compulsory.

17. Additional rules:

As the amount of Club Racing cars is not sufficient for a race representing the Porsche brand, Club Racing cars will be given the possibility to participate in the Time Trial, as a own class.

Safety issues regarding this combination will be addressed in the Driver's briefing on Saturday.

Additional rules or changes will be published on the information board, next to the Competition Office.

18. Competitor interrogation:

If the Race Director want to discuss with the Competitor, he/she will be called upon. If the Competitor has left the area, the decision may be made without the Competitor's input.
